Alberto Peola is pleased to present the works of some of the artists on his books which have recently featured in prestigious cultural events and museums, in Italy as well as abroad.

Botto e Bruno held their solo exhibition Deep End at the Italian Cultural Institute in Madrid and participate in the group show The magnificent obsession at Mart, Rovereto.

Fatma Bucak took part in Vennestraat, Hidden Places and Identities, in the Parallel Event programme within Manifesta9, in Genk. She will hold a solo show in Arter, Istanbul, next September.

Paola De Pietri's project To Face was exhibited at Maxxi, Rome and at the Triennale di Milano. This work earned her the Albert Renger-Patzsch Award, from the Dietrich-Oppenberg-Foundation, and was published by Steidl, Göttingen

Eva Frapiccini's work, the cycle Lead Walls, featured in the exhibition History I Have Never Lived Through (Indirect Witness) at the Castello di Rivoli. Frapiccini's work was later purchased by Fondazione CRT per l'Arte.

Emily Jacir participated in dOCUMENTA(13) with his installation ex libris. She takes part in Emergency Pavilion: Rebuilding Utopia, one of the collateral events at the 55th Venice Biennale.

Laura Pugno's works were on view in the show Greater Torino, at the Fondazione Sandretto Re Rebaudengo in Turin. She will hold a solo exhibition at Museo MAN, Nuoro, next September.

This exhibition will provide an opportunity to view once again these artists' works in our gallery in Turin.
